DEDICATION

With an ever-present expression of wise judgement and high ideals, he has become an intrinsic part of this school. His gracious manner and interest in each of our problems has won the respect of all. The delightful sense of humor that he possesses makes the days at West Yadkin much brighter and more pleasant.

We wish to thank our yearbook adviser for his kindness and patience that has always encouraged each of us. It is because of this that we, the 1960 Annual Staff, feel honored to dedicate this edition of "The Eagle" to MR. HOYT REECE.

CLASS HISTORY

"The Best Years of Our Lives." Yes, these were the good years, the years filled with memories, laughter, study, and frequent reprimands. Above all, they were the years in which we established a sound foundation for our roles as Mr. and Mrs. America of tomorrow. May we, in looking back over the past few years, realize that without the constant guidance, encouragement and kind understanding of the faculty, our hopes of graduation would probably be remnants of an unfilled dream. Let's reminisce awhile.

The year 1956 found seventy-six somewhat frightened but eager freshmen taking their initial step as high school students. It was an awkward feeling, knowing that we would be looked upon as the lambs of high school but under the able direction of Mr. Joe Cash and Mr. C. R. Wright, we soon found that we were one of the necessary elements in a high school student body. Our first important task as freshmen was to elect class officers and we chose the following students as leaders: Sue Money, president; Larry Allred, vice-president; Bruce Ashburn, secretary; and Joe Doss, treasurer. Our class contributed many members to the Future Homemakers of America and Future Farmers of America and the Glee Club. Many students were participating in school sports. Sue Sparks and Sue Money were elected as Homecoming Attendants.

We started our sophomore year a much wiser group of students, although much smaller. We then numbered sixty-one. Our sponsors for the year were Mr. Roy Peele and Mr. H. C. Moretz, Jr. For class officers we elected Bruce Ashburn, president; Larry Allred, vice-president; Earline Reavis, secretary; and Philip Gough, treasurer. Jean Hastings and Shelby Vanhoy were elected Homecoming Attendants. Again we had representatives on some of the varsity teams.

Next came our Junior year. Fifty-three of us enrolled with Mr. Hoyt Reece and Mrs. Mildred Matthews as our sponsors. This was a happy year for all of us, a year in which we prepared ourselves for the all important Senior year, which was to follow. Our class officers were Bruce Ashburn, president; Joe Doss, vice-president; Lana Long, secretary; and Kaye Pardue, treasurer. On April 21, 1959, we were host to the Seniors of 1959 in the West Yadkin School Cafeteria for the Junior-Senior Banquet. The Hawaiian theme was presented on this occasion. Another exciting experience was giving the junior play, entitled, "Take Three Girls." This year our class had some representatives in the Beta Club. Linda Brown and Earline Reavis were elected Homecoming Attendants.

At long last we have arrived as full-fledged Seniors. Our number had decreased to forty-three; but our spirits have increased to an unparalleled height. Our sponsors this year are Mr. John Moretz and Mrs. Helen Wishon; and the Class Officers are Joe Doss, president; Carrie Steelman, vice-president; Alice Harris, secretary; and Luther Vanhoy, treasurer. Jerrie Turner and Edna McCann were elected Homecoming attendants to our Homecoming Queen, Sue Sparks. Pattie Mauldin was elected to the position of Editor-in-Chief of our yearbook, "The Eagle," this year.

Thus far we have enjoyed every phase of the school program. Now we look forward to the few remaining months of school, the months that hold in store for us the most memorable times of our lives. We will attend the Junior-Senior Banquet as formal guests of the juniors. We have yet to begin our work on the Senior play. Soon after this will come the Baccalaureate Sermon. Our last appearance of the year will be Commencement, that grand and proud moment when we shall walk down the aisle to receive our diplomas.

As we leave West Yadkin School as graduates, may we look back to the wonderful days we have spent here, owing our deepest respects and profound gratitude to those of the faculty who have given so much of their time and effort that we might reach our most cherished goal.

CLASS PROPHECY

Centuries old temple bells ring out. The frightened coolies scurry swiftly away and leave me along in the forbidden spot. The temple bells sound again, their echos recalling memories of the past and aspirations of the future. The misty veil of time is removed, time closes its circle--and I can see. . .

The green valley of Future is revealed, stretches ahead. Why, here are my friends, older now, and this is what they are doing.

Here is BRUCE ASHBURN, a big executive at Reynold's Tobacco Company, and there is CRAIG BROOKS, now a successful teacher at West Yadkin High School.

JANE NELL BROWN is a crusading evangelist for her church. CAROL GREGORY is busy taking care of her three lovely children.

The scene shifts, and here appears PAT-TIE MAULDIN. She is now editor of a magazine entitled, LADIES HOME JOURNAL. This year ALICE HARRIS is on the American women's basketball team to the Olympics. DALE HUDLER is the top designer of scientific toys for the Acme Toy Corporation. Oh, and there goes JERRIE TURNER, who is the private secretary to a New York Millionaire.

Again the scene changes and I see that LANA LONG is happy in her role as housewife for that handsome husband; and next door lives LINDA BROWN; married now; a fine neighbor and a wonderful mother.

LETHIA VESTAL appears weekly on TV's Red Skelton Show.

FLORENCE PREVATTE is the librarian at the newly constructed Yadkin County Library, designed by ALBERT CAUDLE, who has become a top architect and designer.

SHIRLEY BURGESS wings her way across the country daily as an airline stewardess for Piedmont Airlines. CARRIE STEELMAN is proofreading for the "Life in These United States" column in The Reader's Digest.

CHARLES KING is a famous professional football player. BENNIE ASHLEY has designed a new car for General Motors and is on his way to his first million.

JOE DOSS and NOLAN BROWN are rocket pilots whose jobs take them to the moon. We find ZELMA SWISHER teaching geometry at Appalachian State Teacher's College. EDNA McCANN has taken over her mother's beauty shoppe and enlarged it into a charm school.

F. H. NICHOLS is a game warden at Yellowstone National Park.

BILLY COLLINS is the policeman who is directing traffic on Yadkinville's Main Street.

DALTON CORAM is pitching for the Los Angeles Dodgers, formerly in the league cellar.

GREY PINNIX is the manager of the main office of Western Auto in Chicago. WALDON BALL is employed by West Yadkin High School as its first truant officer.

SUE MONEY is staying home these days, taking care of her husband and their triplets.

See that nationally-read comic strip? The author is LUTHER VANHOY, who always had a sense of humor.

Our scene shifts to Washington, D. C. and I see ANN NIXON making a speech to the wildly cheering multitude of her supporters as the first woman president of the United States. BOBBY OLIVER, the Congressman for our district, is among them.

In an exclusive finishing school for young ladies, we find RAYMOND HOLLEMAN, as the Dean of Women.

CLEO HUDSON is on foreign shores as a WAC. KAYE PARDUE is the owner of an orange ranch in California. Here is SUE LIVINGOOD, co-owner of the "Shady Haven" a resort in the mountains. CHRISTINE REAVIS is a nurse in Luna City, our new U. S. colony on the moon.

BETTY SHORE is a social worker for the slum areas of San Francisco, where she is well loved by her unfortunants.

SUE SPARKS married a rich oil man who took her to Australia where he is currently prospecting for new oil fields.

There is EDNA SHORE, who owns and operates a dress shoppe for the elite in society. EARLINE REAVIS is a model for Fabulous Furs, Inc. in New York.

This seems to be all I can see. But wait! I was not among these pictured. Eagerly I scan the scene for what I shall be doing; where shall I be? Even as I gaze, it is in vain, for the misty curtain of time is falling, and I am alone in the twilight, now suddenly I am quite chilly, for I know. .but who would believe?

Dear Reader:

We, the staff of the 1960 Eagle, have had a wonderful time in giving you this yearbook. We have had some difficulties and long hours of hard work and---even a few tears.

We wish to thank everyone for the co-operation that you have given us. Especially, we would like to thank our yearbook adviser, Mr. Hoyt Reece, for not becoming impatient with us, even though we have caused him many headaches.

To you we offer this yearbook. We hope you will cherish and enjoy this book for many years to come, and that these memories will not fade from your mind. It's worth can only be determined by you, The Reader.

Thanking you,

The 1960 Annual Staff

Mrs. Matthews,
I have enjoyed being in your homeroom this year. The best of luck to a very good teacher.

Sammy Allen

Mrs. Matthews

I have enjoyed being in your homeroom this year. I've never been in one of your classes, but the girls say they really like you.
I wish you the best of luck.

Garry Allen

Mrs. Matthews,

I have really enjoyed working with you on the banquet. Everyone likes you, including me. I'm looking forward to knowing you next year.

Best wishes
Sharon Huddle

Mrs. Matthews,

I certainly have enjoyed being in your class this year.
I'll always remember the good food we had to eat in our foods unit. ^{Ha} Best wishes to a very nice person.

A student

Alice Harris

Mrs. Matthews,

I have enjoyed being
in your class these years in high school. I have learned a lot in your class that I know will come in handy some day.
Good luck and the best of wishes to you and your husband.

Jane Nell Brown

Mrs. Matthews,

I have enjoyed being in your classes and working at different things very much.
I have learned many things that I would probably never have learned if I had not taken Home Economics. I will miss being with you next year, but never will I forget your smiling face. Best wishes to you and your husband.

a student
Carmen Stulman

Mrs. Matthews,

I really have enjoyed being in your class.
I have really learned a lot of things about cooking and sewing.
Best wishes to you and your husband &
"little dog".

Love,
Libby Golden

Mrs. Matthews,

It has been a pleasure to be in your classes these past few years. I think you are a swell teacher and I'll never forget catching on fire in your class. Best wishes and may all the happiness the world has to offer be yours and your husband's.

A student,
Kaye Cardue

Mrs. Matthews,

I have enjoyed being in your classes these past 4 years. I think you are a swell teacher. You have helped me understand things more clearly than anyone ^{else} could have. I will always remember you. May all the blessings the world has to offer come to you and your husband.

Best wishes!

Mrs. Carol S. Gregory

Mrs. Matthews,

I have enjoyed being in your classes these past 4 years. All of us that have been in them have profited very much. I'll never forget how much fun I had when we went to the State F. H. A. Conventions and working on the Junior-Senior Banquet. Because of the good training you have given us in class we will be able to have happier homes. If anyone at W. Y. ever has a trouble they always know to come to you and you'll help them. So, here's wishing all the luck and happiness life has to offer to a very swell teacher and her husband.

Love

Sue Mony Noble

Dear Mrs. Matthews,

It has been my pleasure to know you and to be in your Home Ec. class. You are one of my favorite teachers. May all good things come your way because that is what you deserve.

Mrs. Matthews,

I will always remember you as a real good teacher. You have helped me not only in my home economics work, but with other things also. I'm looking forward to be in your class again next year. Here's ~~what~~ wishing you the best of everything.

Jane Angell

Mrs. Matthews,

It has been a great privilege to have been under the guidance of such a wonderful teacher. Your help has been of great value in helping us to establish economical homes. ~~Your help~~ You are included in my most treasured memories of my high school days. Here is wishing a sweet teacher the finest things in life.

Best Wishes,
Lue Sparks
